

Single Parents: Feel lonely? Stressed? Exhausted? Hopeless? Can't find time for yourself? Have you ever wondered what's God's plan for you and your children? Do you really have no choice in parenting all by yourself alone? Where can you find help?

If you are facing these questions in your life, come to the Single Parent Support Group (SPSG) to find out. You will see this fellowship is designed for you: the warm atmosphere, the sensitive minds, and strong support.

Single Parent Support Group (SPSG)

Mission of Fellowship—To share single parenting special needs; to seek God's wisdom, strength and guidance; to encourage, support and pray for each other; to witness God's faithfulness in our lives.

For Whom—Single parents and their children and those who have a heart to provide support to single parent families.

Meeting time—Once a month, on the Third Saturday of each month, 2-5 pm, children's activities provided.

Meeting place—GCAC Fellowship House or Individual homes

Language— English/Chinese

Current activity (topic of study) --Successful Single Parenting (Video tape and book) plus additional topics such as divorce recovery

Coordinators –

Eva Jun, 301-229-5194 evajun@yahoo.com

Janet Jing, 240-686-0808 janetjing99@yahoo.com

Baining Liu, 301-294-7838 baining_liu@yahoo.com

Upcoming Event

October 18 at Johnson and Angela Fan's Home:

2-3 p.m. Successful Single Parenting Lesson 1

3-5 p.m. Special Speaker, Special topic "Communicating with Your Teenager"